PNDC HIGHLIGHTS

PNDC Welcomes a New Addition to the Team

They say it takes a village and we are happy to introduce a new member of ours! Matt Freepons joins us with several years of experience in client facing and office administration. He has assisted in coordinating a multitude of events in his last position, hosting events for a variety of clientele from attorney organizations to a sitting international ambassador. Matt assists with the daily operational responsibilities, event logistics, as well as serving as a procurement counselor for GCAP Business clients. Matt was raised in the Pacific Northwest and currently resides in Tigard, OR with his fiancée and their cat. He achieved his associate's degree from Portland Community College, and his bachelor's degree from Oregon State University.

We are thrilled to welcome Matt to the PNDC team!

MEMBER NEWS

Learn More About Exporting in Upcoming Virtual Seminar

Expanding your business through exports might be intimidating with the seeming tangle of languages, customs, rules and regulations, but the rewards can be great! A host of resources exist that can help you sort through it all. As part of the Lunch & Learn series, the Oregon DEC in collaboration with the Idaho DEC, bring you a program highlighting the rich expertise of U.S. Embassies that are at your disposal. Join us Thursday, December 8 at 1:30PM (PT) via Zoom for a program including panelists bringing firsthand knowledge & experience. Register for the free program at https://lnkd.in/gcb_rPxm or click either of the logos below.
