

Colonel Stephen Snelson

62d Airlift Wing

Vice Commander

History of 62d AW

Camp Lewis
1917

Fort Lewis
1927

McChord Field
1940

McChord Air Force Base
1948

Joint Base Lewis-McChord
2010

C-82
1947 - 50

C-124
1951-69

C-141
1966-2002

C-17
1999-Present

Present Day: 62d Airlift Wing

Mission:

Deliver Safe and Reliable Global Airlift

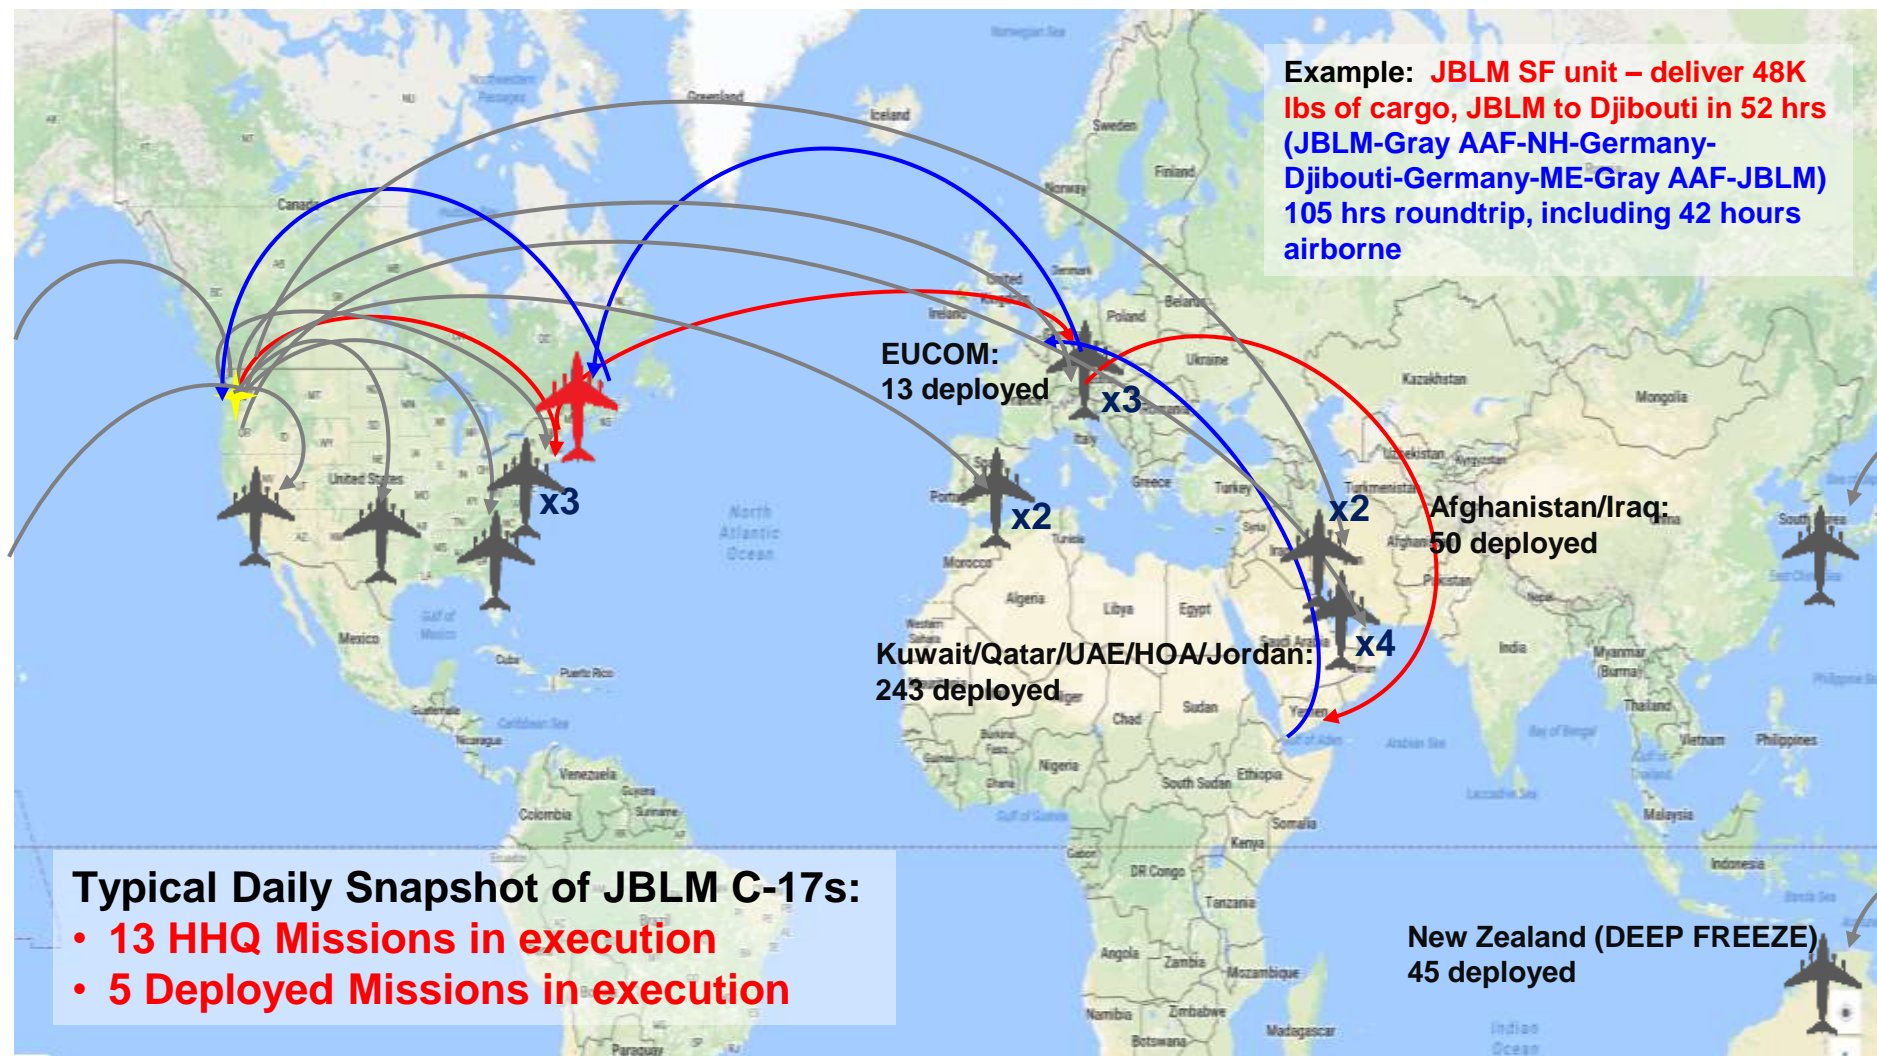

62d Airlift Wing is ready to provide strategic airlift 24/7/365:

- Combat Operations
- Humanitarian Support
- Presidential Support
- Operation DEEP FREEZE
 - Support Nat'l Science Foundation research mission in Antarctica
- Prime Nuclear Airlift Force (PNAF)

JBLM: A Daily Power Projection Platform

Exercise MOBILITY GUARDIAN

- Air Mobility Command's Premier Exercise
- Execution: 30 Jul – 12 Aug 2017
 - JBLM Ops as Initial Staging Base with three forward operating bases in the region
 - Focuses on Mobility Air Forces (MAF) full spectrum mission sets
- Scope
 - 3500 USAF participants
 - 26 international partners
 - 500 US Army paratroopers
 - 44 USAF airlift / tanker aircraft
 - 13 international aircraft

Air Mobility Command's Vision for the Future

Readiness

- Maintain Readiness Of Personnel, Platforms, Systems, Training & Partnerships To Provide RGM On Behalf Of Our Nation

Grow/Develop Airmen

- Set Conditions For Well-Educated & Professionally-Developed Total Force Airmen (Officer, Enlisted, Civilian)

Modernization

- Ensure Future Success By Modernizing Aircraft & C2 Systems

Nuclear Mission

- Provide No-Fail Support For The Nuclear Enterprise

www.facebook.com/62ndairliftwingcommander

